

THE WHITE ROSE RESISTANCE

NEW PERSPECTIVES

TUESDAY 17 MARCH

- 2pm Arrival and registration
All events take place in the Jarvis Doctorow Hall at St Edmund Hall unless otherwise indicated.
- 2.30pm 'Introduction'
Alex Lloyd, University of Oxford
- 3pm Panel I
"‘Love and Do What You Will’: Why Theodor Haecker Spoke to the White Rose"
Helena Tomko, Villanova University
'Cult and Commemoration'
Daniel Lloyd, University of Vienna
'The White Rose on the BBC German Service'
Emily Oliver, University of Oxford
- 5pm Recital
'Voices of the German Resistance – The White Rose in Text and Song' | Lieder recital and reading from the White Rose members' pamphlets, letters, and diaries
Shulman Auditorium, The Queen's College
- 7.15pm Symposium Dinner
St Edmund Hall

WEDNESDAY 18 MARCH

- 9.30am Panel II
'Telling the Stories of the White Rose: Bearing Witness and Building Empathy Through Oral Storytelling'
Sarah Brady, Independent
'Commemoration of the White Rose within Eastern and Western Germany'
Katie Joy Sanchez, University of Oxford
'The White Rose in Brazil: Translation, Reception, Experiences'
Tinka Reichmann, University of Leipzig
- 11am Coffee
- 11.30am Panel III
'Circles within Circles: Willi Graf's Connections to Other Resisters'
Stephani Richards-Wilson, Alverno College
'The White Rose's Passive Resistance: Sources, Texts, and Contexts'
Eraldo Souza dos Santos, Panthéon-Sorbonne University/Forschungsinstitut für Philosophie Hannover
'Sophie Scholl: Interpreting an Icon'
Alex Lloyd, University of Oxford

REGISTRATION

The symposium is convened by the White Rose Project, in association with the Weiße Rose Stiftung Munich and the Queen's College Translation Exchange. Register here: www.whiteroseproject.org/register | Contact alexandra.lloyd@seh.ox.ac.uk for more information.

- 1pm Lunch
- 2pm Round Table: On Translation
Charlotte Ryland (Queen's College Translation Exchange), Louise Mayer-Jacquelin (University of Oxford), and others.

3.30pm Coffee

4pm White Rose: Reading and Discussion
A reading and discussion with Kip Wilson, author of the award-winning historical novel-in-verse White Rose.

