

THE ECOTHEOLOGY RESEARCH SEMINAR

A research seminar exploring new ideas and perspectives in the emerging field of ecotheology

Michaelmas Term 2025

Friday
17 Oct
Week One

Rev'd Dr MARK SCARLATA

St Mellitus College, London

Wine, Soil and Salvation in the Hebrew Bible and New Testament

Followed by sustainable wine talk and tasting session (register separately)

Friday
14 Nov
Week Five

Professor ARTHUR PETERSEN

University College, London

Bruno Latour and Religion: An Assessment from Philosophy and Ecotheology

Friday
28 Nov
Week Seven

Rev'd Dr LAURA BIRON-SCOTT

Balliol College, University of Oxford

The Book of Nature: An Aesthetic Approach to Ecotheology

All seminars 15.00-16.30, followed by refreshments
Hosted at Campion Hall, Brewer Street, OX1 1QS

Seminars will be of interest to undergraduates and graduates in the Faculty of Theology & Religion, and to other scholars in the Humanities and Social Sciences.

To attend please contact Dr Timothy Howles (timothy.howles@campion.ox.ac.uk).
Having registered, you will receive the paper the week before to read in advance.